2. [] Mr. Harry Gastley, in the General Counsel office of Civil Service Commission, called to inquire about the status of our negotiations on the transfer of retirement funds from the Civil Service fund to the Agency retirement fund. He raised this question in connection with Civil Service's review of proposed CIA Retirement Act amendments referred to them by OMB for comment. I told Gastley what I knew of this situation and we agreed to take it up with John Warner on his return on Monday.

3. [] Met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee and we discussed a number of matters including legislation now pending in the Senate which has an impact on the Agency; the status of the DOD/CIA review of the two sensitive readout programs; Committee treatment of the "Fulbright amendment" issue this year; and a number of current intelligence items.

5. [] Talked to Mrs. Lois G. Myers, Employee Benefits Subcommittee staff, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who told me that the Committee meeting for this afternoon had been cancelled and will not be rescheduled until after the August recess. There will be no further consideration of the "Ervin" bills until after the recess. I thanked Mrs. Myers for the information.

6. [] In response to my inquiry, Frank Slatinshek, Assistant Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, said that the new Subcommittee on Intelligence would have the same nominal responsibilities as the old CIA Subcommittee chaired by the late Chairman Rivers. He said that Representative Lucien Nedzi had been appointed Chairman because he was identified with and acceptable to the liberal element in the Committee, although he was completely security conscious and sensible. He said he did not expect Representative O'Konski to play a very active part, and pointed out that the other members, Representatives Price, Fisher, and Bray had served on the previous Subcommittee and that Chairman Hebert and Ranking Minority Member Arends, who had also been on the previous Subcommittee, would be ex officio members of the new Subcommittee. Slatinshek seemed to think the arrangement would be thoroughly satisfactory from the Agency standpoint.

7. [] At the suggestion of Al Westphal, Staff Consultant, House Foreign Affairs Committee, I called Clifford P. Hackett, of the Europe Subcommittee, for clarification on a story []

8. [] Mr. Bill Knox, in the office of Representative William Mailliard (R., Calif.), called inquiring if five interns in his office could join the group of Stanford University Government interns who are scheduled for a tour of the Agency on 19 August. I told Mr. Knox that I would look into the matter and advise him. I contacted [] Chief, DDI, Research Staff, and he stated that as a result of a written request, the Stanford interns have been scheduled for a general briefing on the Agency to be conducted by [] will advise me tomorrow as to whether the five interns in Representative Mailliard's office can also be invited to attend. [] noted that the Stanford interns are now holding positions throughout the Government and possibly only a small number are employed in Congressional offices.
